CIVIL MINUTES - GENERAL

JS-6

Case No. CV 07-3882 CAS (FMOx) Date April 29, 2008
Title JILL WATKINS, ETC. v. TERRY S. SEMEL; ET AL.

Present: The Honorable CHRISTINA A. SNYDER
CATHERINE JEANG Not Present N/A
Deputy Clerk Court Reporter / Recorder Tape No.
Attorneys Present for Plaintiffs: Attorneys Present for Defendants:
Not Present Not Present

Proceedings: (In Chambers): PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE
AMENDED COMPLAINT (filed 3/20/08)

(In Chambers): DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO TRANSFER
VENUE UNDER 28 USC § 1404(a) (filed 4/15/08)

The Court finds these motions appropriate for decision without oral argument.
Fed. R. Civ. P. 78; Local Rule 7-15. Accordingly, the hearing date of May 5, 2008, is hereby vacated, and these matters are hereby taken under submission.

On June 14, 2007, plaintiff filed this derivative action against Yahoo!, Inc. and various individual defendants. Plaintiff filed an amended complaint on January 11, 2008.

On March 20, 2008, plaintiff filed the instant motion for leave to file an amended complaint. Defendants filed an opposition thereto on April 21, 2008. Plaintiff filed a reply on April 28, 2008.

Defendants filed a motion to transfer this action to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California on April 15, 2008. Plaintiff filed an opposition thereto on April 21, 2008. Defendants filed a reply on April 28, 2008.

The parties agree that this action should be transferred to the Northern District of California. Moreover, transfer is appropriate because this action is related to In re Yahoo, CV 07-3125 CAS (FMOx), which has been transferred to the Northern District of California. See March 10, 2008 Order (CV 07-3125, Docket 56). Accordingly, the Court GRANTS defendants' motion to transfer.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CIVIL MINUTES - GENERAL

JS-6

Case No. CV 07-3882 CAS (FMOx) Date April 29, 2008
Title JILL WATKINS, ETC. v. TERRY S. SEMEL; ET AL.

In light of the transfer of this case, the Court declines to decide plaintiff's motion for leave to amend. This matter is more properly decided by the transferee court. See Valadez Lopez v. Chertoff, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 56041, at*10-*11 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (deferring ruling on the plaintiff's motion for leave to file a second amended complaint, even though it was unopposed, because this motion was more appropriately decided by the transferee court). Accordingly, the Court declines to rule on plaintiff's motion for leave to file an amended complaint.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

I hereby attest and certify on 4/30/08
that the foregoing document is a full, true and correct copy of the original on file in my office, and in my legal custody.

04/29/2008	33	MINUTES OF IN CHAMBERS ORDER held before Judge Christina A. Snyder re: MOTION for Leave to File Amended Complaint 16 , MOTION to Transfer Case to Northern District of California 25 . The Court finds these motions appropriate for decision without oral argument. Hearing date of May 5, 2008, is vacated, and these matters are taken under submission. Court GRANTS defendants motion to transfer case to Northern District of California. In light of the transfer of this case, the Court declines to decide plaintiff's motion for leave to amend. This matter is more properly decided by the transferee court. Accordingly, the Court declines to rule on plaintiffs motion for leave to file an amended complaint. (See document for details.) DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

YAHOO! INC., a Delaware corporation,

Nominal Defendant.

1 Plaintiff, Jill Watkins, derivatively on behalf of Yahoo! Inc. ("Yahoo!" or the 2 "Company"), upon her personal knowledge as to those allegations concerning 3 herself and based upon information and belief, based upon, amongst other things,
4 the investigations made by their attorneys, allege the following:

5 NATURE OF THE CASE

6 1. This lawsuit presents a classic example of improper conduct by insiders
7 who were boasting about the prospects of the Company and telling investors that the 8 Company would be repurchasing the stock because it was undervalued while they 9 were independently selling their own stock and pocketing millions of dollars. The 10 defendants' conduct has resulted in a flurry of lawsuits filed against Yahoo!
11 including Draucker Development and True Communication Inc v. Yahoo! Inc et al.,
12 2:06-cv-2737 CAS (FMOx), Checkmate Strategic Group Inc v. Yahoo Inc et al.,
13 2:05-cv-04588-CAS (FMOx) and Ellen Rosenthal Brodsky v. Yahoo! Inc. et al., 14 2:07-cv-03125-CAS (FMOx) ("Related Cases").

15 2. As stated in the Plaintiff's verification attached to this Complaint, 16 Plaintiff brings this action as a shareholder of Yahoo! as a derivative action on 17 behalf of the Company against certain of its officers and directors "in the hope of 18 improving the Company and recovering damages for the Company caused by 19 defendants' conduct." More specifically, Plaintiff brings this action to remedy 20 defendants' violations of federal and state law, including fraud, breaches of 21 fiduciary duties, waste of corporate assets, unjust enrichment and violations of the 22 California Corporations Code that occurred between April 2004 and the present (the 23 "Relevant Period").

24 BRIEF SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

25 3. Yahoo! is a leading global Internet brand and one of the most trafficked
26 Internet destinations worldwide. The Company offers a variety of online properties 27 and services to Internet users that help them search the worldwide Web from their 28 own computers, essentially for "free." Yahoo! obtains a substantial portion of its revenues from charging businesses for the various tools and marketing products it offers. Phenomenal growth in online traffic over the past five years significantly increased Yahoo!'s reported advertising revenues and permitted the Company to report record revenues and to double its reported earnings each year:

FISCAL YEAR	REVENUE DERIVED FROM MARKETING/ADVERTISING	NET REVENUES	EARNINGS/ (LOSS)
2001	$571 M - 79%	$717 M	($93 M)
2002	$651.6 M - 68%	$953 M	$43 M
2003	$1.3 B - 81%	$1.6 B	$238 M
2004	$3.1 B - 87%	$3.6 B	$840 M
2005	$4.6 B - 87%	$5.3 B	$1.9 B

4. During the Relevant Period, defendants caused or allowed Yahoo! to make improper statements concerning Yahoo!'s sales growth, record reported revenues and earnings and strong business fundamentals, which the Company stated would provide further stability and growth. These statements precipitated an increase in the Company's value to over $43 per share on January 6, 2006.

5. The Company's Relevant Period statements, however, improperly omitted material adverse facts concerning operational deficiencies in the Company's ad technology. Moreover, under defendants' direction, the Company improperly concealed adverse facts suggesting that Yahoo! was rapidly losing market share to Google and other search engines and Web destinations. These negative material facts suggested that the Company would suffer declines in its revenues, earnings and value. These facts should have been accurately reported in the Company's Relevant Period statements to maintain Yahoo!'s valuable business reputation.

6. In May 2006, Yahoo! was sued in this District on behalf of Yahoo!'s advertising customers based on the Company's alleged failure to provide the "targeted advertising" it was charging premium advertising rates for. Plaintiffs alleged Yahoo! was charging premium advertising rates for "sponsored searches" and "content match" advertising but was instead placing their ads at random without any link to Internet users' search terms and without any "content matching."

1 Instead, plaintiffs alleged, Yahoo! placed their ads on Web sites that users either
2 found by accident or that were completely untargeted, while Yahoo! promoted its 3 "sponsored search" and "content match" products as "state of the art in targeted
4 Internet advertising" and claimed Yahoo!'s targeted advertising was the "foundation
5 on which Yahoo ha[d] built its Internet advertising empire."

6 7. On July 19, 2006, the Company's stock price fell precipitously by 22%
7 on heavy volume after the Company announced fiscal second quarter 2006 financial 8 results that were lower than investors had been led to expect. As a result, analysts
9 downgraded Yahoo!'s stock en masse, erasing billions of dollars in market
10 capitalization as the Company's once valuable business reputations was irreparably 11 tarnished.

12 8. Yahoo!'s Relevant Period statements failed to disclose and 13 misrepresented the following material adverse facts, which defendants knew, 14 consciously disregarded, were reckless and grossly negligent in not knowing or 15 should have known:

16 (a) Yahoo! generated revenue by improperly misleading Internet
17 advertising business customers to induce these customers to buy Yahoo! advertising
18 products;

19 (b) Yahoo! employees made improper representations regarding the 20 Company's advertising technology and products to its customers;

21 (c) Yahoo! improperly represented the essential characteristics,
22 quality, and/or nature of competing products and commercial activities, including 23 relevance, potential click-throughs and quality;

24 (d) Yahoo!'s advertising technology was operationally defective, 25 causing its own advertising offerings to substantially under-perform those of its 26 rivals;

27 (e) Whereas Yahoo!'s rivals were paying high-traffic vendors to 28 route traffic through their Web sites, Yahoo! was charging large vendors for access

1 and was dependent on that revenue to make its revenue targets, making Yahoo!'s
2 Web site a less desirable location for vendors to drive traffic to; and

3 (f) Yahoo! was losing market share to Google and other Internet
4 search providers.

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 9. The claims asserted herein arise under §10(b) of the Securities
7 Exchange Act of 1934 ("1934 Act"), 15 U.S.C. §§78j(b), and Rule 10b-5.
8 Jurisdiction is conferred by §27 of the 1934 Act, 15 U.S.C. §78aa.

9 10. Venue is proper in this District because Yahoo!'s Overture subsidiary 10 is located in this District and was substantially involved in the fraudulent advertising 11 sales scheme alleged herein. Additionally, the allegations in this case are 12 substantially related to the claims being prosecuted in the Related Cases pending in 13 this district.

14 THE PARTIES

15 11. Plaintiff is, and was at times relevant hereto, an owner and holder of 16 Yahoo! common stock.

17 12. Nominal defendant Yahoo! is a corporation organized and existing 18 under the laws of the state of Delaware with its headquarters located at 701 First 19 Avenue, Sunnyvale, California 94089. Yahoo! is a leading global Internet brand 20 and one of the most trafficked Internet destinations worldwide.

21 13. Defendant Terry S. Semel ("Semel") is Yahoo!'s Chairman and Chief 22 Executive Officer and has been at all relevant times. Because of Semel's positions, 23 he knew, consciously disregarded, was reckless and grossly negligent in not 24 knowing or should have known the adverse, non-public information about the 25 business of Yahoo! including its finances, markets and present and future business 26 prospects, via access to internal corporate documents, conversations and 27 connections with other corporate officers and employees, attendance at Board and 28 management meetings and committees thereof, as well as reports and other

1 information provided to him in connection therewith. During the Relevant Period,
 2 Semel participated in the issuance of false and/or misleading statements, including
 3 the preparation of the improper press releases and Securities and Exchange
 4 Commission ("SEC") filings. Yahoo! paid Semel the following compensation:

5			Restricted
6	Year	Salary	Stock	Stock	Option	Options	Misc.
7	2006	$250,001	Awards	Awards	Awards
8	2005	$600,000	-	$2,895,833	$36,678,679	-	$125
9	2004	$600,000	$8,687,500	-	-	3,300,000	$1,980
10			-	-	-	7,200,000	$1,980

11 During the Relevant Period, Semel sold 15,966,786 shares of Yahoo! stock for 12 proceeds of $584,447,826.76 while in possession of material non-public 13 information.

14 14. Defendant Susan L. Decker ("Decker") is Yahoo!'s Head of Advertisers
 15 and Publisher Group, since January 2007, and Chief Financial Officer, since June 16 2000. Because of Decker's positions, she knew, consciously disregarded, was 17 reckless and grossly negligent in not knowing or should have known the adverse,
 18 non-public information about the business of Yahoo! including its finances, markets 19 and present and future business prospects, via access to internal corporate 20 documents, conversations and connections with other corporate officers and 21 employees, attendance at management meetings, as well as reports and other 22 information provided to her in connection therewith. During the Relevant Period, 23 Decker participated in the issuance of improper statements, including the 24 preparation of the improper press releases and SEC filings. Yahoo! paid Decker the 25 following compensation:

26			Restricted			Non-
27	Year	Salary	Bonus	Stock	Stock	Equity	Options	Misc.
28	2006	$500,000	-	Awards	Awards	Incentive
29	2005	$500,000	$1,000,000	$7,246,500	$4,833,545	Plan	-	$41,937
30	2004	$500,000	$900,000	$1,854,000	-	-	675,000	$3,800
31	2003	$500,000	-	$1,852,200	-	-	150,000	$3,550
32							250,000	$3,300

1 During the Relevant Period, Decker sold 2,203,333 shares of Yahoo! stock for 2 proceeds of $73,885,047.80 while in possession of material non-public information.

3 15. Defendant Arthur H. Kern ("Kern") is a Yahoo! director and member 4 of the Audit and Compensation Committees and has been at all relevant times.
5 Because of Kern's position, he knew, consciously disregarded, was reckless and 6 grossly negligent in not knowing or should have known the adverse, non-public
7 information about the business of Yahoo! including its finances, markets and present
8 and future business prospects, via access to internal corporate documents,
9 conversations and connections with other corporate officers and employees,
10 attendance at Board meetings and committees thereof, as well as reports and other
11 information provided to him in connection therewith. During the Relevant Period,
12 Kern participated in the issuance of improper statements, including the preparation
13 of the improper press releases and SEC filings. During the Relevant Period, Kern 14 sold 939,454 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of $33,094,136.79 while in 15 possession of material non-public information.

16 16. Defendant Jerry Yang ("Yang") is a Yahoo! director and has been at all 17 relevant times. Yang is also one of the Company's founders and holds the position
18 of "Chief Yahoo." Because of Yang's positions, he knew, consciously disregarded, 19 was reckless and grossly negligent in not knowing or should have known the 20 adverse, non-public information about the business of Yahoo! including its finances, 21 markets and present and future business prospects, via access to internal corporate 22 documents, conversations and connections with other corporate officers and 23 employees, attendance management and at Board meetings and committees thereof, 24 as well as reports and other information provided to him in connection therewith.
25 During the Relevant Period, Yang participated in the issuance of improper 26 statements, including the preparation of the improper press releases and SEC filings.
27 During the Relevant Period, Yang sold 400,000 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds 28 of $14,496,261.65 while in possession of material non-public information.

1 17. Defendant Eric Hippeau ("Hippeau") is a Yahoo! director and has been 2 at all relevant times. Because of Hippeau's position, he knew, consciously
3 disregarded, was reckless and grossly negligent in not knowing or should have 4 known the adverse, non-public information about the business of Yahoo! including 5 its finances, markets and present and future business prospects, via access to internal
6 corporate documents, conversations and connections with other corporate officers
7 and employees, attendance at Board meetings and committees thereof, as well as 8 reports and other information provided to him in connection therewith. During the 9 Relevant Period, Hippeau participated in the issuance of improper statements, 10 including the preparation of the improper press releases and SEC filings. During the 11 Relevant Period, Hippeau sold 340,000 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 12 $12,379,200 while in possession of material non-public information.

13 18. Defendant Edward R. Kozel ("Kozel") is a Yahoo! director and 14 member of the Audit Committee and has been at all relevant times. Because of 15 Kozel's position, he knew, consciously disregarded, was reckless and grossly 16 negligent in not knowing or should have known the adverse, non-public information
17 about the business of Yahoo! including its finances, markets and present and future 18 business prospects, via access to internal corporate documents, conversations and 19 connections with other corporate officers and employees, attendance at Board
20 meetings and committees thereof, as well as reports and other information provided 21 to him in connection therewith. During the Relevant Period, Kozel participated in 22 the issuance of improper statements, including the preparation of the improper press
23 releases and SEC filings. During the Relevant Period, Kozel sold 120,050 shares of 24 Yahoo! stock for proceeds of $4,464,706.28 while in possession of material non-25 public information.

26 19. Defendant Robert A. Kotick ("Kotick") is a Yahoo! director and has 27 been at all relevant times. Because of Kotick's position, he knew, consciously 28 disregarded, was reckless and grossly negligent in not knowing or should have

1 known the adverse, non-public information about the business of Yahoo! including
2 its finances, markets and present and future business prospects, via access to internal
3 corporate documents, conversations and connections with other corporate officers
4 and employees, attendance at Board meetings and committees thereof, as well as 5 reports and other information provided to him in connection therewith. During the 6 Relevant Period, Kotick participated in the issuance of improper statements,
7 including the preparation of the improper press releases and SEC filings. During the 8 Relevant Period, Kotick sold 74,859 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 9 $2,661,081.22 while in possession of material non-public information.

10 20. Defendant Roy J. Bostock ("Bostock") is a Yahoo! director and 11 member of the Compensation Committee and has been at all relevant times.
12 Because of Bostock's position, he knew, consciously disregarded, was reckless and 13 grossly negligent in not knowing or should have known the adverse, non-public
14 information about the business of Yahoo! including its finances, markets and present
15 and future business prospects, via access to internal corporate documents,
16 conversations and connections with other corporate officers and employees,
17 attendance at Board meetings and committees thereof, as well as reports and other
18 information provided to him in connection therewith. During the Relevant Period, 19 Bostock participated in the issuance of improper statements, including the 20 preparation of the improper press releases and SEC filings. During the Relevant 21 Period, Bostock sold 66,805 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of $2,345,192.17
22 while in possession of material non-public information.

23 21. Defendant Gary L. Wilson ("Wilson") is a Yahoo! director and member 24 of the Audit Committee and has been at all relevant times. Because of Wilson's 25 position, he knew, consciously disregarded, was reckless and grossly negligent in 26 not knowing or should have known the adverse, non-public information about the 27 business of Yahoo! including its finances, markets and present and future business
28 prospects, via access to internal corporate documents, conversations and

1 connections with other corporate officers and employees, attendance at Board
2 meetings and committees thereof, as well as reports and other information provided
3 to him in connection therewith. During the Relevant Period, Wilson participated in 4 the issuance of improper statements, including the preparation of the improper press
5 releases and SEC filings. During the Relevant Period, Wilson sold 23,600 shares of 6 Yahoo! stock for proceeds of $896,800 while in possession of material non-public
7 information.

8 22. Defendant Ronald W. Burkle ("Burkle") is a Yahoo! director and 9 member of the Compensation Committee and has been at all relevant times.
10 Because of Burkle's position, he knew, consciously disregarded, was reckless and 11 grossly negligent in not knowing or should have known the adverse, non-public
12 information about the business of Yahoo! including its finances, markets and present
13 and future business prospects, via access to internal corporate documents,
14 conversations and connections with other corporate officers and employees,
15 attendance at Board meetings and committees thereof, as well as reports and other
16 information provided to him in connection therewith. During the Relevant Period,
17 Burkle participated in the issuance of improper statements, including the preparation
18 of the improper press releases and SEC filings.

19 23. Defendant Vyomesh Joshi ("Joshi") is a Yahoo! director and member 20 of the Audit Committee and has been since July 2005. Because of Joshi's position,
21 he knew, consciously disregarded, was reckless and grossly negligent in not 22 knowing or should have known the adverse, non-public information about the 23 business of Yahoo! including its finances, markets and present and future business
24 prospects, via access to internal corporate documents, conversations and 25 connections with other corporate officers and employees, attendance at Board
26 meetings and committees thereof, as well as reports and other information provided 27 to him in connection therewith. During the Relevant Period, Joshi participated in 28

1 the issuance of improper statements, including the preparation of the improper press
2 releases and SEC filings.

3 24. The defendants identified in ¶¶13, 15-23 are referred to herein as the 4 "Director Defendants." The defendants identified in ¶¶13-14 are referred to herein
5 as the "Officer Defendants." The defendants identified in ¶¶13-21 are referred to 6 herein as the "Insider Selling Defendants." Collectively, the Director Defendants, 7 the Officer Defendants and Insider Selling Defendants are referred to herein as the 8 "Individual Defendants."

9 CONSPIRACY, AIDING AND ABETTING, AND CONCERTED ACTION

10 25. In committing the wrongful acts alleged herein, the Individual 11 Defendants have pursued, or joined in the pursuit of, a common course of conduct, 12 and have acted in concert with and conspired with one another in furtherance of 13 their common plan or design. In addition to the wrongful conduct herein alleged as 14 giving rise to primary liability, the Individual Defendants further aided and abetted 15 and/or assisted each other in breaching their respective duties.

16 26. During all times relevant hereto, the Individual Defendants collectively
17 and individually initiated a course of conduct that was designed to and did:
18 (i) conceal the fact that the Company was improperly portraying its business 19 prospects, in order to allow defendants to artificially inflate the price of the 20 Company's shares; (ii) maintain the Individual Defendants' executive and directorial
21 positions at Yahoo! and the profits, power and prestige that the Individual 22 Defendants enjoyed as a result of these positions; and (iii) deceive the investing 23 public, including shareholders of Yahoo!, regarding the Individual Defendants'
24 management of Yahoo!'s operations, the Company's financial health and stability, 25 and future business prospects, specifically related to the Company's financials that 26 had been misrepresented by defendants throughout the Relevant Period. In 27 furtherance of this plan, conspiracy and course of conduct, the Individual 28 Defendants collectively and individually took the actions set forth herein.

1 27. The Individual Defendants engaged in a conspiracy, common enterprise
2 and/or common course of conduct commencing by at least April 2004 and 3 continuing thereafter. During this time, the Individual Defendants caused the 4 Company to conceal the true fact that Yahoo! was misrepresenting its business
5 prospects. In addition, defendants also made other specific, improper statements
6 about Yahoo!'s financial performance and future business prospects, as alleged 7 herein.

8 28. The purpose and effect of the Individual Defendants' conspiracy, 9 common enterprise, and/or common course of conduct was, among other things, to 10 disguise the Individual Defendants' violations of law, breaches of fiduciary duty, 11 waste of corporate assets and unjust enrichment; to conceal adverse information
12 concerning the Company's operations, financial condition and future business 13 prospects; and to artificially inflate the price of Yahoo! common stock so they 14 could: (i) dispose of over $728 million of their personally held stock; and (ii) protect 15 and enhance their executive and directorial positions and the substantial 16 compensation and prestige they obtained as a result thereof.

17 29. The Individual Defendants accomplished their conspiracy, common 18 enterprise and/or common course of conduct by causing the Company to 19 purposefully, recklessly or negligently misrepresent its business prospects and 20 release improper statements. Because the actions described herein occurred under 21 the authority of the Board, each of the Individual Defendants was a direct, necessary 22 and substantial participant in the conspiracy, common enterprise and/or common 23 course of conduct complained of herein.

24 30. Each of the Individual Defendants aided and abetted and rendered 25 substantial assistance in the wrongs complained of herein. In taking such actions to 26 substantially assist the commission of the wrongdoing complained of herein, each 27 Individual Defendant acted with knowledge of the primary wrongdoing, 28

1 substantially assisted the accomplishment of that wrongdoing, and was aware of his 2 overall contribution to and furtherance of the wrongdoing.

3 DUTIES OF THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS

4 31. By reason of their positions as officers, directors and/or fiduciaries of 5 Yahoo! and because of their ability to control the business and corporate affairs of 6 Yahoo!, the Individual Defendants owed Yahoo! and its shareholders fiduciary 7 obligations of trust, loyalty, good faith and due care, and were and are required to 8 use their utmost ability to control and manage Yahoo! in a fair, just, honest and 9 equitable manner. The Individual Defendants were and are required to act in 10 furtherance of the best interests of Yahoo! and its shareholders so as to benefit all 11 shareholders equally and not in furtherance of their personal interest or benefit.

12 32. Each director and officer of the Company owes to Yahoo! and its 13 shareholders the fiduciary duty to exercise good faith and diligence in the 14 administration of the affairs of the Company and in the use and preservation of its 15 property and assets, and the highest obligations of fair dealing. In addition, as 16 officers and/or directors of a publicly held company, the Individual Defendants had 17 a duty to promptly disseminate accurate and truthful information with regard to the 18 Company's revenue, margins, operations, performance, management, projections 19 and forecasts so that the market price of the Company's stock would be based on 20 truthful and accurate information.

21 33. The Individual Defendants, because of their positions of control and 22 authority as directors and/or officers of Yahoo!, were able to and did, directly and/or 23 indirectly, exercise control over the wrongful acts complained of herein, as well as 24 the contents of the various public statements issued by the Company. Because of 25 their advisory, executive, managerial and directorial positions with Yahoo!, each of 26 the Individual Defendants had access to adverse non public information about the 27 financial condition, operations, and improper representations of Yahoo!.

28

1 34. At all times relevant hereto, each of the Individual Defendants was the 2 agent of each of the other Individual Defendants and of Yahoo!, and was at all times
3 acting within the course and scope of such agency.

4 35. To discharge their duties, the officers and directors of Yahoo! were 5 required to exercise reasonable and prudent supervision over the management, 6 policies, practices and controls of the financial affairs of the Company. By virtue of 7 such duties, the officers and directors of Yahoo! were required to, among other 8 things:

9 (a) refrain from acting upon material inside corporate information to 10 benefit themselves;

11 (b) ensure that the Company complied with its legal obligations and 12 requirements, including acting only within the scope of its legal authority and 13 disseminating truthful and accurate statements to the SEC and the investing public;

14 (c) conduct the affairs of the Company in an efficient, business like 15 manner so as to make it possible to provide the highest quality performance of its 16 business, to avoid wasting the Company's assets, and to maximize the value of the 17 Company's stock;

18 (d) properly and accurately guide investors and analysts as to the 19 true financial condition of the Company at any given time, including making 20 accurate statements about the Company's financial results and prospects, and 21 ensuring that the Company maintained an adequate system of financial controls such 22 that the Company's financial reporting would be true and accurate at all times;

23 (e) remain informed as to how Yahoo! conducted its operations, and,
24 upon receipt of notice or information of imprudent or unsound conditions or 25 practices, make reasonable inquiry in connection therewith, and take steps to correct 26 such conditions or practices and make such disclosures as necessary to comply with 27 federal and state securities laws; and 28

1 (f) ensure that the Company was operated in a diligent, honest and 2 prudent manner in compliance with all applicable federal, state and local laws, rules 3 and regulations.

4 36. Each Individual Defendant, by virtue of his or her position as a director
5 and/or officer, owed to the Company and to its shareholders the fiduciary duties of 6 loyalty, good faith and the exercise of due care and diligence in the management and 7 administration of the affairs of the Company, as well as in the use and preservation
8 of its property and assets. The conduct of the Individual Defendants complained of 9 herein involves a knowing and culpable violation of their obligations as directors
10 and officers of Yahoo!, the absence of good faith on their part, and a reckless 11 disregard for their duties to the Company and its shareholders that the Individual 12 Defendants were aware or should have been aware posed a risk of serious injury to 13 the Company. The conduct of the Individual Defendants who were also officers 14 and/or directors of the Company during the Relevant Period have been ratified by 15 the remaining Individual Defendants who collectively comprised all of Yahoo!'s 16 Board during the Relevant Period.

17 37. The Individual Defendants breached their duties of loyalty and good 18 faith by allowing defendants to cause, or by themselves causing, the Company to 19 misrepresent its financial results and prospects, as detailed herein infra, and by 20 failing to prevent the Individual Defendants from taking such illegal actions. In 21 addition, as a result of defendants' illegal actions and course of conduct during the 22 Relevant Period, the Company is now the subject of a class action lawsuit that 23 alleges violations of federal securities laws. As a result, Yahoo! has expended, and 24 will continue to expend, significant sums of money.

25 38. Moreover, these actions have irreparably damaged Yahoo!'s corporate 26 image and goodwill. Yahoo!'s Board has misled the investing public, such that 27 Yahoo!'s ability to raise equity capital or debt on favorable terms in the future is 28 now impaired.

FALSE AND MISLEADING STATEMENTS

39. The Individual Defendants by their fiduciary duties of care, good faith and loyalty owed to Yahoo! a duty to insure that the Company's financial reporting fairly presented, in all material respects, the operations and financial condition of the Company. In order to adequately carry out these duties, it is necessary for the Individual Defendants to know and understand the material, non-public information to be either disclosed or omitted from the Company's public statements.

40. This material, non-public information principally included the fact that Yahoo! was improperly charging its advertising customers for services that the Company would not deliver. Furthermore, defendants Joshi, Kern, Kozel and Wilson, as members of the Audit Committee, had a special duty to know and understand this material information as set out in the Audit Committee's charter which provides that the committee is responsible for reviewing and discussing: (i) the Company's earnings press releases, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided by the Company to analysts and rating agencies; and (ii) the Company's internal controls.

41. Defendants Semel and Decker as officers of Yahoo!, had ample opportunity to discuss this material information with their fellow officers at management meetings and via internal corporate documents and reports. Moreover, defendants Semel, Yang, Bostock, Burkle, Hippeau, Joshi, Kern, Kotick, Kozel and Wilson, as directors of Yahoo! had ample opportunity to discuss this material information with management and fellow directors at any of the Board meetings that occurred during the Relevant Period as well as at meetings of committees of the Board. Despite these duties, the Individual Defendants negligently, recklessly, and/or intentionally caused or allowed, by their actions or inactions, the following improper statements to be disseminated by Yahoo! to the investing public and the Company's shareholders during the Relevant Period.

42. On April 7, 2004, the Individual Defendants caused or allowed the Company to issue a press release entitled "Yahoo! Reports First Quarter 2004 Financial Results; Company Posts Revenues of $758 Million, Operating Income of $132 Million, Operating Income Before Depreciation and Amortization of $211 Million." The press release stated in relevant part:

"Yahoo!'s performance surpassed even our high expectations, delivering the most successful quarter in the Company's history," said Terry Semel, chairman and chief executive officer, Yahoo! "With our products more popular than ever before, we have experienced success across our entire business including strong growth in our fee-based and marketing services."

- Revenues were $758 million in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $283 million in the same period of 2003.
- Revenues excluding traffic acquisition costs ("TAC") were $550 million in the first quarter of 2004, compared to $283 million for the same period of 2003.
- Gross profit for the first quarter of 2004 was $476 million, compared to $240 million for the same period of 2003.
- Operating income for the first quarter of 2004 was $132 million, compared to $55 million for the same period of 2003.
- Operating income before depreciation and amortization for the first quarter of 2004 was $211 million, compared to $85 million for the same period of 2003.
- Cash flow from operating activities for the first quarter of 2004 was $236 million, compared to $99 million for the same period of 2003.
- Free cash flow for the first quarter of 2004 was $197 million, compared to $78 million for the same period of 2003.

"Yahoo! is off to a great start in 2004. Our growth is a result of very impressive performance from our ongoing operations, leveraged further by recent acquisitions" said Susan Decker, chief financial officer, Yahoo!. "Looking forward, we are focused on making the appropriate investments and capital allocation decisions to help ensure sustainable, long-term growth. Due to our increased optimism about our business, we have raised our financial outlook for the full year 2004."

43. On June 28, 2004, the Individual Defendants caused or allowed the Company to issue a press release entitled "Overture Launches Local Sponsored Search Listings to Leading Web Sites." The press release stated in relevant part:

Overture Services, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Yahoo Inc. and provider of essential online marketing services, today announced the launch of Local Match?, its new sponsored search product which delivers local search listings to consumers searching online for local products and services. Through Local Match, advertisers can precisely

1 target customers interested in a specific neighborhood and present
2 customized offers and business details to them.

3 Overture's Local Match listings appear today in the U.S. on 4 Yahoo! and MyCity.com and will be displayed on other popular sites
5 including MSN, ESPN.com and certain sites within the InfoSpace
6 network, including online directory sites Switchboard.com and 7 InfoSpace.com and search sites Dogpile.com, WebCrawler.com, MetaCrawler.com and Excite.com. Through its strong network of distribution sites, Local Match offers advertisers of all sizes – including businesses that do not have a Web site – the opportunity to reach consumers searching online for products and services in the advertiser's local area.

8 "Overture has built upon its core sponsored search product to 9 deliver a highly relevant and precise local offering to businesses of all 10 sizes, whether they have a Web site or not," said Geoff Stevens, 11 General Manager, Local for Overture. "The launch of Local Match 12 marks yet another addition to our growing suite of integrated 13 sponsored search offerings. As the product evolves, we are confident 14 that both advertisers and consumers will realize the significant value
15 of the highly targeted marketing and incredibly relevant search 16 experience enabled by Local Match."

17 "Local search represents a very significant opportunity for both 18 small and large advertisers, as consumers go online to find local 19 business information," said Greg Sterling, program director for The 20 Kelsey Group. "Our research shows that slightly more than 25% of 21 commercial searches performed by online buyers today are local, and 22 we expect that figure to grow over time as local search capabilities continue to improve."

23 Local Match enables advertisers of all sizes to precisely target
24 customers who are searching the Web to find products and services 25 from a local provider. Specifically, advertisers have the ability to 26 pinpoint a geographic area surrounding their business (between 0.5 to 27 100 miles) in which they would like their search listing to be shown.
28 For example, an electronics store in Austin, TX could choose to have its listings displayed only to users searching for "DVD player" within a five-mile radius of its location. Similarly, a large national consumer electronics retailer could use Local Match to tailor its listings and discounts to customers who are looking to purchase items at specific local stores.

23 In addition, for businesses that do not have a Web site, Local 24 Match provides a customizable business information page that offers 25 key details about their business such as a street address, phone number, 26 payment options, hours of operation and a dynamic map.

27 44. On July 7, 2004, the Individual Defendants caused or allowed the 28 Company to issue a press release entitled "Yahoo! Reports Second Quarter 2004
Financial Results; Company Posts Revenues of $832 Million, Operating Income of

1 $149 Million, Operating Income Before Depreciation and Amortization of $234
 2 Million." The press release stated in relevant part:

3 "Yahoo!'s second quarter results represent another record
 4 quarter for the Company and demonstrate continued execution of our 5 core priorities," said Terry Semel, chairman and chief executive 6 officer, Yahoo!. "Yahoo! is in the midst of a product renaissance, as 7 we have been busier than ever rolling out new products and services
 8 we believe will be essential to our users."

- 9 ■ Revenues were $832 million for the second quarter of 2004,
 10 compared to $321 million for the same period of 2003.
- 11 ■ Revenues excluding traffic acquisition costs ("TAC") were $609
 12 million for the second quarter of 2004, compared to $321 million 13 for the same period of 2003.
- 14 ■ Gross profit for the second quarter of 2004 was $535 million,
 15 compared to $275 million for the same period of 2003.
- 16 ■ Operating income for the second quarter of 2004 was $149
 17 million, compared to $63 million for the same period of 2003.
- 18 ■ Operating income before depreciation and amortization for the 19 second quarter of 2004 was $234 million, compared to $98
 20 million for the same period of 2003.
- 21 ■ Cash flow from operating activities for the second quarter of 22 2004 was $250 million, compared to $92 million for the same
 23 period of 2003.
- 24 ■ Free cash flow for the second quarter of 2004 was $194 million,
 25 compared to $71 million for the same period of 2003.

26 "Yahoo! is benefiting from its diverse and balanced sources of 27 revenue, which have well positioned the Company to deliver strong, 28 consistent, and profitable growth," said Susan Decker, chief financial officer, Yahoo!. "Yahoo! remains committed to making the appropriate investments in our products and services in order to ensure that they remain among the most popular on the Internet, and continue to contribute to the creation of long-term shareholder value."

45. On October 12, 2004, the Individual Defendants caused or allowed the Company to issue a press release entitled "Yahoo! Reports Third Quarter 2004
 Financial Results; Company Posts Revenues of $907 Million, Operating Income of $172 Million, Operating Income Before Depreciation and Amortization of $260
 Million." The press release stated in relevant part:

"Yahoo! began to demonstrate the next stage in the Company's evolution in the third quarter, and in doing so recorded its sixth consecutive quarter of record revenue," said Terry Semel, chairman and chief executive officer, Yahoo!. "We accelerated the pace at which new products and services were developed, which in-turn helped increase the level of user engagement across the Yahoo!
network. Our engaged audience enables us to deliver an unmatched

1 set of advertising opportunities, providing deeper value to our 2 marketers, and supporting the mantra that great products are the key
 3 to a great business."

- 4 ▪ Revenues were $907 million for the third quarter of 2004, a 154 percent increase compared to $357 million for the same period of 2003.
- 5 ▪ Revenues excluding traffic acquisition costs ("TAC") were $655 million for the third quarter of 2004, an 84 percent increase compared to the $357 million for the same period of 2003.
- 6 ▪ Gross profit for the third quarter of 2004 was $574 million, an 86 percent increase compared to $310 million for the same period of 2003.
- 7 ▪ Operating income for the third quarter of 2004 was $172 million, an increase of 106 percent compared to $83 million for the same period of 2003.
- 8 ▪ Operating income before depreciation and amortization for the third quarter of 2004 was $260 million, a 122 percent increase compared to $117 million for the same period of 2003.
- 9 ▪ Cash flow from operating activities for the third quarter of 2004 was $267 million, an increase of 97 percent compared to $136 million for the same period of 2003.
- 10 ▪ Free cash flow for the third quarter of 2004 was $202 million, a 108 percent increase over the $97 million reported for the same period of 2003.
- 11 ▪ Net income for the third quarter of 2004 was $253 million or $0.17 per diluted share (including a net impact of $129 million, or $0.09 per share, related to the sale of an investment and the associated tax benefit resulting from fully reserved capital losses becoming realizable). Excluding this gain, net income for the third quarter was $124 million, or $0.09 per diluted share. This compares with net income of $65 million or $0.05 per diluted share for the same period of 2003.
- 12 ▪ The provision for income taxes of $67 million yielded an effective tax rate of 21% for the third quarter of 2004 as a result of the previously described tax benefit associated with the capital loss carryforwards. The provision for income taxes in the same period of 2003 was $40 million, and yielded an effective tax rate of 38%.

 24 that long-term free cash flow generation is the most important factor driving shareholder value and we are very pleased with both its magnitude in this quarter and the strong foundation on which it is based, positioning us well for sustained growth."

25 46. On November 17, 2004, the Individual Defendants caused or allowed 26 the Company to issue a press release entitled "Yahoo's Overture Extends Sponsored 27 Search Relationship with MSN Through June 2006." The press release stated in 28 relevant part:

Overture Services, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Yahoo Inc. and provider of essential online marketing services, today announced the extension of its sponsored search distribution relationship with Microsoft Corp. in the United States and internationally through June 2006.

Under the terms of the extension, Overture will continue to provide its sponsored search results to MSN sites in the U.S. and Canada, Europe and Asia. The previous agreement ran through June 2005.

"Overture has been a strategic partner of MSN since 2001, and we look forward to continuing our productive relationship," said Yusuf Mehdi, corporate vice president for the MSN Information Services & Merchant Platform division at Microsoft. "We are pleased that our collaboration has helped grow the online ad industry and benefited consumers and advertisers in the process."

Overture's industry-leading global distribution network includes major Web portals, ISPs and other heavily trafficked destination sites. Overture's search listings are generated by the company's advertisers who bid for placement on keywords relevant to their business. "MSN is a valued industry partner and we are pleased to extend our successful relationship in the U.S. and around the world," said Ted Meisel, president of Overture. "We appreciate the vote of confidence from MSN and we look forward to working with them on innovative sponsored search solutions."

47. On January 18, 2005, the Individual Defendants caused or allowed the Company to issue a press release entitled "Yahoo! Reports Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2004 Financial Results; Company Posts Full Year Revenues of $3,575 Million, Operating Income of $689 Million, Operating Income Before Depreciation and Amortization of $1,032 Million." The press release stated in relevant part:

"Yahoo! moved at an impressive pace in the fourth quarter, capping another record year for the Company. Our users were more engaged in 2004 than ever before because of Yahoo!'s relentless focus on delivering the most innovative products and services on the Internet," said Terry Semel, chairman and chief executive officer, Yahoo!. "Yahoo! also benefited from the growing acceptance of online advertising with marketers who recognize its effectiveness and are therefore increasingly using this platform to reach their consumers."

- Revenues were $1,078 million for the fourth quarter of 2004, a 62 percent increase compared to $664 million for the same period of 2003.
- Revenues excluding traffic acquisition costs ("TAC") were $785 million for the fourth quarter of 2004, a 54 percent increase compared to $511 million for the same period of 2003.

- 1 ▪ Gross profit for the fourth quarter of 2004 was $691 million, a 56
2 percent increase compared to $443 million for the same period of 3 2003.
- 4 ▪ Operating income for the fourth quarter of 2004 was $235
5 million, a 149 percent increase compared to $94 million for the 6 same period of 2003.
- 7 ▪ Operating income before depreciation and amortization for the 8 fourth quarter of 2004 was $327 million, an 84 percent increase
9 compared to $178 million for the same period of 2003.
- 10 ▪ Cash flow from operating activities for the fourth quarter of 2004
11 was $337 million, a 231 percent increase compared to $102
12 million for the same period of 2003.
- 13 ▪ Free cash flow for the fourth quarter of 2004 was $251 million, a 14 172 percent increase compared to $92 million for the same
15 period of 2003.
- 16 ▪ Net income for the fourth quarter of 2004 was $373 million or 17 $0.25 per diluted share (including a net impact of $185 million, 18 or $0.13 per diluted share, related to the sale of an investment).
19 Excluding this gain, net income for the fourth quarter was $187
20 million, or $0.13 per diluted share. This compares with net
21 income of $75 million or $0.05 per diluted share for the same
22 period of 2003.

23 "Yahoo!'s strong fourth quarter performance completes our 24 third consecutive year of delivering strong organic revenue growth,
25 expanding operating margins, and generating substantial free cash
26 flow" said Susan Decker, chief financial officer, Yahoo!. "We are 27 attracting more and more users to Yahoo!'s network of services and 28 driving their usage deeper with more relevant products and services.
This deeper usage is the real magic behind the surpassing of our financial objectives."

- 1 ▪ Revenues for the year ended December 31, 2004 were $3,575
2 million, a 120 percent increase compared to $1,625 million for 3 2003.
- 4 ▪ Revenues excluding TAC for 2004 were $2,600 million, a 77
5 percent increase compared to $1,473 million for 2003.
- 6 ▪ Gross profit for 2004 was $2,276 million, an 80 percent increase 7 compared to $1,267 million for 2003.
- 8 ▪ Operating income for 2004 was $689 million, a 133 percent
9 increase compared to $296 million for 2003.
- 10 ▪ Operating income before depreciation and amortization for 2004
11 was $1,032 million, a 116 percent increase compared to $477
12 million for 2003.
- 13 ▪ Cash flow from operating activities for 2004 was $1,090 million, 14 a 155 percent increase compared to $428 million for 2003.
- 15 ▪ Free cash flow for 2004 was $844 million, a 149 percent increase 16 compared to $339 million for 2003.
- 17 ▪ Net income for 2004 was $840 million or $0.58 per diluted share 18 (including a net impact of $314 million, or $0.22 per diluted
19 share, related to the sale of an investment and the associated tax 20 benefit resulting from fully reserved capital losses becoming 21 realizable). Excluding this gain, net income for 2004 was $526
22 million, or $0.36 per diluted share. This compares with net
23 income of $238 million or $0.18 per diluted share for 2003.

- The provision for income taxes of $438 million yielded an effective tax rate of 37% for 2004 as a result of the previously described tax benefit associated with the capital loss carryforwards. The provision for income taxes for 2003 was $147 million, and yielded an effective tax rate of 43%.

48. On March 1, 2005, the Individual Defendants caused or allowed the Company to issue a press release entitled "Overture Services to Become Yahoo! Search Marketing Solutions; Will Offer Sponsored Search and Submit Products, Providing One-Stop Search Marketing Resource for Businesses Worldwide." The press release stated in relevant part:

Overture Services, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Yahoo Inc. today announced that it will be re-branded Yahoo! Search Marketing Solutions and will bring together its sponsored search offerings and Yahoo! listings submit products under the new banner. Through Yahoo! Search Marketing Solutions, advertisers of all sizes will enjoy convenient access to the industry's most comprehensive suite of search marketing and related products and services.

Yahoo! Search Marketing Solutions' suite of offerings will include the following products:

- Sponsored Search Listings, the flagship search advertising product.
- Content Match™, Yahoo!'s contextual advertising listings.
- Local Match™, Yahoo!'s local sponsored search offering.
- Site Match™ Self Serve and Site Match Xchange™, Yahoo!'s search URL submission products.
- Yahoo! Product Submit™, the Yahoo! Shopping URL submission program.
- Yahoo! Express™, the Yahoo! Directory URL submission program.
- Marketing Console™, which enables advertisers to track campaign performance across multiple online channels.
- Search Optimizer™, which allows advertisers to improve their campaign performance and reduce the amount of time spent managing their listings.

The group will also continue to enhance and expand Yahoo's network of sponsored search distribution sites.

In conjunction with Overture's re-branding, Yahoo! will launch a new Advertising Solutions Center in the U.S., through which businesses can plan and buy Yahoo! Search Marketing Solutions products. In addition, the new center will offer marketers information about Yahoo!'s customized, creative media solutions, providing them access to the largest set of search marketing and brand advertising solutions on the web.

1 "Our mission is to be essential to marketers of all types around
 2 the world," said Ted Meisel, Senior Vice President, Yahoo! Inc.
 3 "Unifying all of our search marketing and related products under 4 one banner and one common approach reflects our commitment to 5 integrate and simplify online advertising, allowing businesses of all
 6 sizes to take advantage of the Yahoo! search marketing solutions that 7 best fit their marketing goals."

 9 Overture will formally change its brand in the U.S. early next 10 quarter. After the U.S. re-branding is complete, Overture's international 11 markets will be re-branded at a later date – except for Japan and Korea, 12 where the Overture brand will be maintained. Several products within 13 the suite will be re-named once Overture assumes the Yahoo! brand in 14 the U.S.

- Revenues were $1,576 million for the second quarter of 2006, a 26 percent increase compared to $1,253 million for the same period of 2005.
 - Marketing services revenue was $1,386 million for the second quarter of 2006, a 27 percent increase compared to $1,094 million for the same period of 2005.
 - Fees revenue was $190 million for the second quarter of 2006, a 19 percent increase compared to $159 million for the same period of 2005.
- Revenues excluding traffic acquisition costs ("TAC") were $1,123 million for the second quarter of 2006, a 28 percent increase compared to $875 million for the same period of 2005.
- Gross profit for the second quarter of 2006 was $930 million, a 24 percent increase compared to $753 million for the same period of 2005.
- Operating income for the second quarter of 2006 was $230 million (including $100 million for stock-based compensation expense recorded under the fair value method), a 12 percent decrease compared to $261 million (including $11 million for stock-based compensation expense recorded under the intrinsic value method) for the same period of 2005.
- Operating income before depreciation, amortization and stock-based compensation expense for the second quarter of 2006 was $457 million, a 24 percent increase compared to $368 million for the same period of 2005.
- Cash flow from operating activities for the second quarter of 2006 was $430 million, a 6 percent increase compared to $404 million for the same period of 2005.

- 1 ▪ Free cash flow for the second quarter of 2006 was $358 million,
2 a 19 percent increase compared to $300 million for the same
3 period of 2005.
- 4 ▪ Net income for the second quarter of 2006 was $164 million or 5 $0.11 per diluted share (including $73 million of stock-based 6 compensation expense, net of tax, recorded under the fair value
7 method), compared to $755 million or $0.51 per diluted share for 8 the same period of 2005 (including $7 million of stock-based 9 compensation expense, net of tax, recorded under the intrinsic
10 value method) or compared to adjusted net income of $152 11 million or $0.10 per diluted share (including $57 million of 12 stock-based compensation, net of tax, calculated under the fair 13 value method and excluding gains of $552 million, net of tax, on 14 the sale of certain investments and settlements) for the second 15 quarter of 2005.
- 16 ▪ Adjusted net income excluding stock-based compensation
17 expense, net of tax, recorded under the fair value method for the 18 second quarter of 2006 was $237 million or $0.16 per diluted 19 share. This compares to adjusted net income of $209 million or 20 $0.14 per diluted share, excluding stock-based compensation
21 expense, net of tax, recorded under the intrinsic value method
22 and gains on the sale of certain investments and settlements, net 23 of tax, for the same period of 2005.
- 24 ▪ Explanations of the Company's non-GAAP financial measures
25 and the related reconciliations of the GAAP financial measures 26 the Company considers most comparable are included in the 27 accompanying "Note to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated
28 Statements of Operations" and the "Reconciliations to Unaudited
29 Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations."

30 "We continued to execute on our plan in the second quarter – 31 delivering strong revenue growth, profitability, and returns on our 32 significant free cash flow – while also investing in our business to 33 position the company for future growth," said Susan Decker, chief 34 financial officer, Yahoo! "We believe these investments will expand 35 our unique collection of online services to best meet the objectives of 36 our customers and users, generating maximum value for our network."

37 55. Yahoo! announced sales in the July 18, 2006 press release were 38 significantly lower than expected. These reduced sales coincided with Yahoo!'s 39 declining Web search market share, which declined while Google's market share 40 increased from 37% to 45%. Yahoo!'s value, which had been driven up by the 41 improper statements, declined 22% to $25.20 per share on news of the Company's 42 dismal second quarter 2006 performance and analyst downgrades, thus billions of 43 dollars in market capitalization dissipated overnight.

1 REASONS THE STATEMENTS WERE IMPROPER

2 56. Yahoo!'s Relevant Period statements failed to disclose and 3 misrepresented the following material adverse facts, which the Individual 4 Defendants knew, consciously disregarded, were reckless and grossly negligent in 5 not knowing or should have known:

6 (a) Yahoo! generated revenue by improperly misleading Internet
7 advertising business customers to induce these customers to buy Yahoo! advertising
8 products;

9 (b) Yahoo! employees made improper representations regarding the 10 Company's advertising technology and products to its customers;

11 (c) Yahoo! improperly represented the essential characteristics,
12 quality, and/or nature of competing products and commercial activities, including 13 relevance, potential click-throughs and quality;

14 (d) Yahoo!'s advertising technology was operationally defective, 15 causing its own advertising offerings to substantially under-perform those of its 16 rivals;

17 (e) Whereas Yahoo!'s rivals were paying high-traffic vendors to 18 route traffic through their Web sites, Yahoo! was charging large vendors for access
19 and was dependent on that revenue to make its revenue targets, making Yahoo!'s
20 Web site a less desirable location for vendors to drive traffic to; and

21 (f) Yahoo! was losing market share to Google and other Internet
22 search providers.

23 DAMAGES TO THE COMPANY

24 57. As a result of the Individual Defendants' improprieties, Yahoo!
25 disseminated improper statements concerning its business prospects as alleged 26 above. In addition, as a result of defendants' Relevant Period improprieties, the 27 Company is now the subject of a class action lawsuit that alleges violations of the 28 federal securities laws.

1 58. As a direct and proximate result of the Individual Defendants' actions
2 as alleged above, Yahoo!'s market capitalization has been damaged by over $6.5
3 billion. At the same time that the Individual Defendants were causing Yahoo! to 4 suffer such devastation of its market capitalization, the Insider Selling Defendants
5 were profiting by selling over $728 million of their personally held stock.

6 59. Further, as a direct and proximate result of Individual Defendants'
7 actions, Yahoo! has expended and will continue to expend significant sums of 8 money. Such expenditures include, but are not limited to:

9 (a) Costs incurred to carry out internal investigations, including 10 legal fees paid to outside counsel;

11 (b) Costs incurred in investigating and defending Yahoo! and certain 12 officers in the class actions, plus potentially millions of dollars in settlements or to 13 satisfy an adverse judgment;

14 (c) Costs incurred from compensation and benefits paid to the 15 defendants who have breached their fiduciary duties to Yahoo!; and

16 (d) Costs incurred from the loss of the Company's advertising
17 customers' confidence in Yahoo!'s services.

18 60. Moreover, these actions have irreparably damaged Yahoo!'s corporate 19 image and goodwill. For at least the foreseeable future, Yahoo! will suffer from 20 what is known as the "liar's discount," a term applied to the stocks of companies 21 who have been implicated in illegal behavior and have misled the investing public, 22 such that Yahoo!'s ability to raise equity capital or debt on favorable terms in the 23 future is now impaired.

24 ILLEGAL INSIDER SELLING

25 61. While in possession of the undisclosed material adverse information, 26 the Insider Selling Defendants sold the following shares of Yahoo! stock:

DERIVATIVE AND DEMAND FUTILITY ALLEGATIONS

62. Plaintiff brings this action derivatively in the right and for the benefit of Yahoo! to redress injuries suffered, and to be suffered, by Yahoo! as a direct result of the breaches of fiduciary duty, waste of corporate assets and unjust enrichment, as well as the aiding and abetting thereof, by the Individual Defendants. Yahoo! is named as a nominal defendant solely in a derivative capacity. This is not a collusive action to confer jurisdiction on this Court that it would not otherwise have.

63. Plaintiff will adequately and fairly represent the interests of Yahoo! in enforcing and prosecuting its rights.

64. Plaintiff is and was an owner of the stock of Yahoo! during times relevant to the Individual Defendants' wrongful course of conduct alleged herein, and remains a shareholder of the Company.

65. The current Board of Yahoo! consists of the following ten individuals: defendants Semel, Yang, Bostock, Burkle, Hippeau, Joshi, Kern, Kotick, Kozel and Wilson. Plaintiff has not made any demand on the present Board of Yahoo! to institute this action because such a demand would be a futile, wasteful and useless act.

1 66. As a result of their access to and review of internal corporate
2 documents; conversations and connections with other corporate officers, employees
3 and directors; and attendance at management and Board meetings, each of the 4 defendants knew the adverse non-public information regarding the Company's 5 business prospects. While in possession of this material adverse non-public 6 information regarding the Company, the following current members of the Yahoo!
7 Board participated in the illegal insider selling:

8 (a) During the Relevant Period, while in possession of adverse non-9 public information, Semel sold 15,966,786 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 10 $585,447,826.76;

11 (b) During the Relevant Period, while in possession of adverse non-12 public information, Kern sold 939,454 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 13 $33,094,136.79;

14 (c) During the Relevant Period, while in possession of adverse non-15 public information, Yang sold 400,000 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 16 $14,496,261.65;

17 (d) During the Relevant Period, while in possession of adverse non-18 public information, Hippeau sold 340,000 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 19 $12,379,200;

20 (e) During the Relevant Period, while in possession of adverse non-21 public information, Kozel sold 120,050 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 22 $4,464,706.28;

23 (f) During the Relevant Period, while in possession of adverse non-24 public information, Kotick sold 74,859 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 25 $2,661,081.22;

26 (g) During the Relevant Period, while in possession of adverse non-27 public information, Bostock sold 66,805 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 28 $2,345,192.17;

1 (h) During the Relevant Period, while in possession of adverse non-2 public information, Wilson sold 23,600 shares of Yahoo! stock for proceeds of 3 $896,800.

4 Because these defendants received a personal financial benefit from the 5 challenged insider trading transactions, these defendants are interested. Moreover,
6 these defendants face a sufficiently substantial threat of liability for breach of their 7 fiduciary duties for insider selling. Since these directors have breached their 8 fiduciary duties and are interested, any demand upon them is futile.

9 67. Yahoo! generates a substantial portion all of its revenues from its 10 internet advertising services—the most important aspect of its business. Thus,
11 defendants Semel, Yang, Bostock, Burkle, Hippeau, Joshi, Kern, Kotick, Kozel and 12 Wilson had a duty to be knowledgeable of the Company's advertising services, 13 including the Company's promotion and delivery of those services to its customers.
14 Despite this duty, these defendants caused or allowed the Company to fail to 15 adequately perform advertising services for its customers, thus jeopardizing critical 16 customer relations. Moreover, these defendants caused or allowed the Company to 17 issue the improper statements alleged above. Therefore, demand is futile as to 18 defendants Semel, Yang, Bostock, Burkle, Hippeau, Joshi, Kern, Kotick, Kozel and 19 Wilson because they are interested and face a sufficiently substantial threat of 20 liability to the Company.

21 68. Defendants Joshi, Kern, Kozel and Wilson were, during the Relevant 22 Period, members of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee's charter charges
23 the Audit Committee with reviewing and discussing: (i) the Company's earnings 24 press releases, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided by 25 the Company to analysts and rating agencies; and (ii) the Company's internal 26 controls. Thus, the Audit Committee was responsible for overseeing and directly 27 participating in Yahoo!'s financial reporting process. Accordingly, defendants 28 Joshi, Kern, Kozel and Wilson breached their fiduciary duties of due care, loyalty,

1 and good faith because the Audit Committee participated in the preparation of 2 improper financial statements and earnings press releases that contained false and/or 3 misleading material information. Particularly, these defendants reviewed and failed
 4 to correct Yahoo!'s improper earnings press releases and interim and annual 5 financial statements described above. Thus, defendants Joshi, Kern, Kozel and 6 Wilson face a sufficiently substantial likelihood of liability for their breach of 7 fiduciary duties any demand upon them is futile.

8 69. The principal professional occupation of defendant Semel is his 9 employment with Yahoo!, pursuant to which he received and continues to receive 10 substantial monetary compensations and other benefits. Specifically, Yahoo! paid
 11 Semel the following compensation during the Relevant Period:

Year	Salary	Restricted Stock Awards	Stock Awards	Option Awards	Options	Misc.
2006	$250,001	-	$2,895,833	$36,678,679	-	$125
2005	$600,000	$8,687,500	-	-	3,300,000	$1,980
2004	$600,000	-	-	-	7,200,000	$1,980

15 Accordingly, Semel lacks independence from defendants, Bostock, Burkle and 16 Kern, defendants who are not disinterested and/or independent and who exert 17 influence over Semel's compensation by virtue of their positions as members of the 18 Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee has the authority to 19 review Semel's compensation. This lack of independence renders Semel incapable 20 of impartially considering a demand to commence and vigorously prosecute this 21 action.

22 70. Because the members of the Compensation Committee singularly 23 control the other defendants' awards, the remaining members of the Board will not 24 institute this action against defendants Bostock, Burkle and Kern. To do so would 25 jeopardize each defendant's personal financial compensation. Thus, demand on 26 defendants Semel, Yang, Hippeau, Joshi, Kotick, Kozel and Wilson is futile.
 27
 28

1 71. Each of the key officers and directors knew of and/or directly benefited
2 from the wrongdoing complained of herein.

3 72. The Director Defendants of Yahoo!, as more fully detailed herein, 4 participated in, approved and/or permitted the wrongs alleged herein to have 5 occurred and participated in efforts to conceal or disguise those wrongs from 6 Yahoo!'s stockholders or recklessly and/or negligently disregarded the wrongs
7 complained of herein, and are therefore not disinterested parties.

8 73. In order to bring this suit, all of the directors of Yahoo! would be 9 forced to sue themselves and persons with whom they have extensive business and 10 personal entanglements, which they will not do, thereby excusing demand.

11 74. The acts complained of constitute violations of the fiduciary duties
12 owed by Yahoo!'s officers and directors and these acts are incapable of ratification.

13 75. Each of the Director Defendants of Yahoo! authorized and/or permitted 14 the false statements disseminated directly to the public or made directly to securities 15 analysts and which were made available and distributed to shareholders, authorized 16 and/or permitted the issuance of various of the false and misleading statements and 17 are principal beneficiaries of the wrongdoing alleged herein, and thus could not 18 fairly and fully prosecute such a suit even if such suit was instituted by them.

19 76. Any suit by the current directors of Yahoo! to remedy these wrongs 20 would likely expose the Individual Defendants and Yahoo! to further violations of 21 the securities laws that would result in civil actions being filed against one or more 22 of the Individual Defendants, thus, they are hopelessly conflicted in making any 23 supposedly independent determination whether to sue themselves.

24 77. Yahoo! has been and will continue to be exposed to significant losses 25 due to the wrongdoing complained of herein, yet the Individual Defendants and 26 current Board have not filed any lawsuits against themselves or others who were 27 responsible for that wrongful conduct to attempt to recover for Yahoo! any part of 28 the damages Yahoo! suffered and will suffer thereby.

1 78. If the current directors were to bring this derivative action against 2 themselves, they would thereby expose their own misconduct, which underlies 3 allegations against them contained in class action complaints for violations of 4 securities law, which admissions would impair their defense of the class actions and 5 greatly increase the probability of their personal liability in the class actions, in an 6 amount likely to be in excess of any insurance coverage available to the Individual 7 Defendants. In essence, they would be forced to take positions contrary to the 8 defenses they will likely assert in the securities class actions. This they will not do.
9 Thus, demand is futile.

10 79. If Yahoo!'s current and past officers and directors are protected against 11 personal liability for their acts of mismanagement, and breach of fiduciary duty
12 alleged in this Complaint by directors' and officers' liability insurance, they caused 13 the Company to purchase that insurance for their protection with corporate funds, 14 i.e., monies belonging to the stockholders of Yahoo!. However, due to certain 15 changes in the language of directors' and officers' liability insurance policies in the 16 past few years, the directors' and officers' liability insurance policies covering the 17 defendants in this case contain provisions that eliminate coverage for any action 18 brought directly by Yahoo! against these defendants, known as, inter alia, the 19 "insured versus insured exclusion." As a result, if these directors were to sue 20 themselves or certain of the officers of Yahoo!, there would be no directors' and 21 officers' insurance protection and thus, this is a further reason why they will not 22 bring such a suit. On the other hand, if the suit is brought derivatively, as this action
23 is brought, such insurance coverage exists and will provide a basis for the Company
24 to effectuate recovery. If there is no directors' and officers' liability insurance at all 25 then the current directors will not cause Yahoo! to sue them, since they will face a 26 large uninsured liability.

27 80. Moreover, despite the Individual Defendants having knowledge of the 28 claims and causes of action raised by plaintiff, the current Board has failed and

1 refused to seek to recover for Yahoo! for any of the wrongdoing alleged by plaintiff
2 herein.

3 81. A true and correct copy of this Complaint was delivered to Yahoo!
4 prior to its being filed with this Court.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 Derivatively Against the Officer Defendants for Violation of 7 §10(b) of the 1934 Act and Rule 10b-5 Promulgated Thereunder

8 82. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every 9 allegation contained above, as though fully set forth herein.

10 83. During the Relevant Period, the Officer Defendants disseminated or 11 approved the false statements specified above, which they knew or recklessly 12 disregarded were misleading in that they contained misrepresentations and failed to 13 disclose material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of 14 the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

15 84. The Insider Selling Defendants also sold as set forth herein, receiving 16 ill gotten gains while in possession of material non-public information. These 17 defendants misappropriated Yahoo!'s proprietary information and violated their so-18 called "abstain or disclose" duties under the federal securities laws when they sold 19 Yahoo! stock without disclosing the information alleged to have been concealed 20 herein.

21 85. During the Relevant Period, at the same time the price of the 22 Company's common stock was inflated by the Officer Defendants' misstatements as 23 alleged herein, and the Insider Selling Defendants were selling stock into the market
24 as alleged herein, the Individual Defendants caused Yahoo! to repurchase hundreds 25 of millions of dollars worth of its own stock on the open market at inflated prices.

26 86. During the Relevant Period each of the Officer Defendants violated 27 §10(b) of the 1934 Act and Rule 10b-5 in that they:

28 (a) Employed devices, schemes and artifices to defraud;

1 (b) Made untrue statements of material facts or omitted to state
2 material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the 3 circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or

4 (c) Engaged in acts, practices and a course of business that operated 5 as a fraud or deceit upon Yahoo! in connection with Yahoo!'s purchases of Yahoo!
6 common stock during the Relevant Period.

7 87. As a result of the Officer Defendants' misconduct, Yahoo! has and will 8 suffer damages in that it paid artificially inflated prices for Yahoo! common stock
9 purchased on the open market. Yahoo! would not have purchased Yahoo! common 10 stock at all, or at the inflated prices it paid, had the market been aware that the price
11 of Yahoo!'s stock was artificially and falsely inflated by the Officer Defendants'
12 misleading statements. As a direct and proximate result of these defendants' 13 wrongful conduct, Yahoo! suffered damages in connection with its purchases of 14 Yahoo! common stock during the Relevant Period. By reason of such conduct, the 15 Officer Defendants are liable pursuant to §10(b) of the 1934 Act and SEC Rule 10b-16 S promulgated thereunder.

17 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

18 Against the Insider Selling Defendants for Violation of 19 California Corporations Code §25402

20 88. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every 21 allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth herein.

22 89. At the time that the Insider Selling Defendants sold their Yahoo!
23 common stock as set forth herein, by reason of their high executive and/or 24 directorship positions with Yahoo!, the Insider Selling Defendants had access to 25 highly material information regarding the Company, including the information set 26 forth herein regarding the true adverse facts of Yahoo!'s improper financial 27 reporting.
28

1 90. At the time of such sales, that information was not generally available
2 to the public or the securities markets. Had such information been generally
3 available, it would have significantly reduced the market price of Yahoo! shares at 4 that time.

5 91. The Insider Selling Defendants, and each of them, had actual 6 knowledge of material, adverse, non-public information and thus sold their Yahoo!
7 common stock in California in violation of California Corporations Code §25402.

8 92. Pursuant to California Corporations Code §25502.5, the Insider Selling 9 Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Yahoo! for damages in an amount up to 10 three times the difference between the price at which Yahoo! common stock was 11 sold by the defendants, and each of them, and the market value which that Yahoo!
12 common stock would have had at the time of the sale if the information known to 13 the defendants, and each of them, had been publicly disseminated prior to that time 14 and a reasonable time had elapsed for the market to absorb the information.

15 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

16 Against the Director Defendants for Violation of 17 California Corporations Code §25403

18 93. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every 19 allegation contained above, as though fully set forth herein.

20 94. The Director Defendants, through their positions, possessed control and 21 influence over the Insider Selling Defendants' sale of Yahoo! common stock in 22 violation of the California Corporations Code. The Director Defendants are 23 statutorily liable to the same extent as the Insider Selling Defendants under 24 California Corporations Code §25403.

25 95. The Director Defendants were aware of the Insider Selling Defendants'
26 knowledge of the material adverse non-public information and the Director
27 Defendants were aware of the Insider Selling Defendants' intent to sell Yahoo!
28 common stock while in possession material adverse non-public information.

1 96. The Director Defendants are culpable for the Insider Selling
2 Defendants' underlying violations of California Corporations Code §25402 because 3 of their knowledge and ability to control and influence the Insider Selling 4 Defendants.

5 97. Under California Corporations Code §25403, the Director Defendants,
6 and each of them, are liable to Yahoo! for damages in an amount up to three times
7 the difference between the price at which Yahoo! common stock was sold by the 8 Insider Selling Defendants, and each of them, and the market value which Yahoo!
9 common stock would have had at the time of the sale if the information known to 10 the Individual Defendants, and each of them, had been publicly disseminated prior 11 to that time and a reasonable time had elapsed for the market to absorb the 12 information.

13 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 Against All Defendants for Breach of Fiduciary Duty 15 for Improper Financial Reporting

16 98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every 17 allegation contained above, as though fully set forth herein.

18 99. The Individual Defendants owed and owe Yahoo! fiduciary obligations.
19 By reason of their fiduciary relationships, the Officer Defendants and Director 20 Defendants owed and owe Yahoo! the highest obligation of good faith, fair dealing, 21 loyalty and due care.

22 100. The Individual Defendants, and each of them, violated and breached 23 their fiduciary duties of care, loyalty, reasonable inquiry, oversight, good faith and 24 supervision.

25 101. Each of the Individual Defendants had actual or constructive 26 knowledge that they had caused the Company to improperly misrepresent the 27 financial results of the Company and failed to correct the Company's publicly 28 reported financial results and guidance. These actions could not have been a good

1 faith exercise of prudent business judgment to protect and promote the Company's 2 corporate interests.

3 102. As a direct and proximate result of the Individual Defendants' failure to 4 perform their fiduciary obligations, Yahoo! has sustained significant damages. As a 5 result of the misconduct alleged herein, the Individual Defendants are liable to the 6 Company.

7 103. Plaintiff on behalf of Yahoo! has no adequate remedy at law.

8 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 Against the Insider Selling Defendants for Breach of Fiduciary 10 Duties for Insider Selling and Misappropriation of Information

11 104. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every 12 allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth herein.

13 105. At the time of the stock sales set forth herein, the Insider Selling 14 Defendants knew the information described above, and sold Yahoo! common stock 15 on the basis of such information.

16 106. The information described above was proprietary non-public
17 information concerning the Company's financial condition and future business
18 prospects. It was a proprietary asset belonging to the Company, which the Insider
19 Selling Defendants used for their own benefit when they sold Yahoo! common 20 stock.

21 107. At the time of their stock sales, the Insider Selling Defendants knew 22 that the Company's revenues were materially overstated. The Insider Selling 23 Defendants' sales of Yahoo! common stock while in possession and control of this 24 material adverse, non-public information was a breach of their fiduciary duties of 25 loyalty and good faith.

26 108. Since the use of the Company's proprietary information for their own 27 gain constitutes a breach of the Insider Selling Defendants' fiduciary duties, the 28

1 Company is entitled to the imposition of a constructive trust on any profits the 2 Insider Selling Defendants obtained thereby.

3 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 Against All Defendants for Breach of Fiduciary Duty

5 109. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every 6 allegation contained above, as though fully set forth herein.

7 110. The Individual Defendants' misconduct alleged herein constituted a 8 breach of their fiduciary duties to Yahoo! for abuse of control, gross 9 mismanagement, and waste of corporate assets, for which they are legally 10 responsible.

11 111. As a direct and proximate result of the Individual Defendants' breaches, 12 Yahoo! has sustained significant damages.

13 112. As a result of the misconduct alleged herein, the Individual Defendants 14 are liable to the Company.

15 113. Plaintiff on behalf of Yahoo! has no adequate remedy at law.

16 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 Against All Defendants for Unjust Enrichment

18 114. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every 19 allegation set forth above, as though fully set forth herein.

20 115. By their wrongful acts and omissions, defendants were unjustly
21 enriched at the expense of and to the detriment of Yahoo!.

22 116. Plaintiff, as a shareholder and representative of Yahoo!, seeks 23 restitution from these defendants, and each of them, and seeks an order of this Court 24 disgorging all profits, benefits and other compensation obtained by these defendants, 25 and each of them, from their wrongful conduct and fiduciary breaches.

26 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

27 WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment as follows:

28 1. Against all of the Individual Defendants and in favor of the Company

1 for the amount of damages sustained by the Company as a result of the Individual
2 Defendants' fraud, breaches of fiduciary duties, and unjust enrichment;

3 2. Determining and awarding Yahoo! treble damages pursuant to 4 California Corporations Code §25502.5(a) for the Insider Selling Defendants'
5 violations of California Corporations Code §25402;

6 3. Determining and awarding Yahoo! treble damages against the Director
7 Defendants pursuant to California Corporations Code §25403;

8 4. Directing Yahoo! to take all necessary actions to reform and improve 9 its corporate governance and internal procedures to comply with applicable laws and 10 to protect Yahoo! and its shareholders from a repeat of the damaging events
11 described herein, including, but not limited to, putting forward for shareholder vote
12 resolutions for amendments to the Company's By-Laws or Articles of Incorporation 13 and taking such other action as may be necessary to place before shareholders for a 14 vote the following Corporate Governance Policies:

- 15 • a proposal to strengthen the Board's supervision of operations and 16 develop and implement procedures for greater shareholder input into 17 the policies and guidelines of the Board;
- 18 • control and limit insider stock selling;
- 19 • a provision to permit the shareholders of Yahoo! to nominate at least 20 three candidates for election to the Board;
- 21 • a proposal to ensure the accuracy of the qualifications of Yahoo!'s 22 directors, executives and other employees;
- 23 • a proposal to strengthen the Company's procedures for the receipt,
24 retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company 25 regarding accounting, internal controls and auditing matters; and
- 26 • appropriately test and then strengthen the internal audit and control 27 functions.

28

1 5. Extraordinary equitable and/or injunctive relief as permitted by law,
2 equity and state statutory provisions sued hereunder, including attaching,
3 impounding, imposing a constructive trust on or otherwise restricting the proceeds 4 of defendants' trading activities or their other assets so as to assure that plaintiff on 5 behalf of Yahoo! has an effective remedy;

6 6. Awarding to Yahoo! restitution from the defendants, and each of them,
7 and ordering disgorgement of all profits, benefits and other compensation obtained 8 by the defendants;

9 7. Awarding to plaintiff the costs and disbursements of the action, 10 including reasonable attorneys' fees, accountants' and experts' fees, costs, and 11 expenses; and 12 8. Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and 13 proper.

14 JURY DEMAND

15 Plaintiff demands a trial by jury.

VERIFICATION

I hereby verify that I am a shareholder of Yahoo! Inc. (the "Company"), and am ready, willing, and able to pursue this action in the hope of improving the Company and recovering damages for the Company caused by defendants' conduct. I have reviewed the allegations made in this Derivative Complaint and to those allegations of which I have personal knowledge I believe those allegations to be true. As to those allegations of which I do not have personal knowledge, I rely upon my counsel and their investigation and believe them to be true. Having received a copy of this Complaint, having reviewed it with my counsel, I hereby authorize its filing.

13 Local Rule 83-1.3 of the United States District Court for the Central District of 14 California provides that a Notice of Related Case shall be filed and served on all 15 parties who have appeared stating whether any action pending in the Central District 16 of California and the action being filed appear: (a) to arise from the same or 17 substantially identical transactions, happenings or events; or (b) to call for 18 determination of the same or substantially identical questions of law and fact; or (c) 19 likely for other reasons to entail substantial duplication of labor if heard by different 20 judges.

21 The above case involves substantially identical factual allegations, causes of 22 action and defendants as does this action.

23 Because this action arises from the same transactions, happenings or events,
24 calls for determination of the same questions of law and/or fact and is likely to entail 25 substantial duplication of labor if heard by a different judge it is related within the 26 meaning of Local Rule 83-1.3.
